

COMING OUT MONOLOGUES:
BREAKING THE SILENCE
APRIL 18th, 2007

Have a tragic, interesting, ordinary, or funny
COMING OUT STORY?

We want to hear it! All sexualities and gender identities are encouraged to submit! You are not required to perform your monologue and you may remain anonymous.

Email us at coming.out.ucr@gmail.com for an application.

Deadline: February 1st, 2007

You can:

- write your own coming out story
- write a family/friend's coming out story
- use other forms of media in a monologue/soliloquy fashion
- interview others

The monologues will be performed as a celebration of identity at the end of the Day of Silence. We also need organizers, editors, actors, and techies. Please email us if you want to help. You can also attend our weekly meetings:

Thursdays: LGBT Resource Center, 250 Costo Hall (5-6pm)